

The background features a soft, watercolor-style illustration of a young Thai boy and girl. The boy is on the left, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and blue patterned pants. The girl is on the right, wearing a traditional Thai outfit with a red and gold patterned top and a long, patterned skirt. They are standing in a garden-like setting with yellow flowers and green leaves. Several small birds are scattered around them, some flying and some on the ground.
